1. Opportunities for volunteers are proposed by staff to the CEO.
2. Written requests include a description of the volunteer assignment, duration of assignment and a proposed start date. All staff should understand that successful recruitment of volunteers is enhanced by creative and interesting jobs.

Section 2: Volunteer Position Descriptions

1. Position descriptions are developed in consultation with staff before proceeding with recruitment.
2. Volunteers are given clear, complete, and current descriptions of the duties and responsibilities of their assignment.
3. Position descriptions include a title, a summary of the assignment, a list of responsibilities, qualifications and benefits, any training requirement, the time commitment needed for the assignment, and the name of the supervisor to whom the volunteer reports.
4. The volunteer position descriptions are reviewed with the volunteer prior to beginning the assignment.
5. The library's volunteer position descriptions are reviewed and updated at least every three years or whenever a position substantially changes.

2. Applications to volunteer are also given appropriate consideration.
3. Volunteers are interviewed to ascertain their suitability for, and interest in, an assignment prior to being assigned. The interview determines the qualifications of the volunteer and his/her commitment to fulfill the requirements of the assignment. The interview should also answer any questions that the volunteer has about the library and the assignment.
4. A reference check may be made if appropriate for the volunteer assignment.
5. Volunteers in certain assignments may be asked to submit a police records check. This cost will be paid by the library. Volunteers who do not agree to the background check may be refused placement.
6. No volunteer will begin their assignment until they have been officially accepted for that position and have completed all necessary screening as determined by the CEO. At the time of final acceptance, each volunteer must have submitted a volunteer application and received a copy of his/her volunteer position description.
7. Volunteers perform their duties in the presence of at least one paid staff member. Each volunteer will have a specific staff member to whom he or she reports and who will be responsible for day-to-day support and direction.
8. The library strives to meet volunteer expectations and offer a satisfactory volunteer experience for both parties. However, it may be deemed necessary to explore options such as renegotiate terms of the assignment, reassignment, referral to another organization or to the local volunteer centre, or placement termination.
9. Volunteers who are at any time reassigned to a new position will be interviewed for that assignment and receive all appropriate training for success before they begin.
